A WOMAN'S APPEAL

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these troubles. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE.
You cure yourself at home, as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. SUMMERS,

MAKES WORK EASIER.

Maysville People Are Pleased to Learn
How It is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties
With a constantly aching back;
With annoying urinary disorders.
Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.
They cure backache.
They cure every kidney ill.

Frederick Dresel, 1238 East Second street,
Maysville, Ky., says:

"I consider Doan's Kidney Pills to be a most excellent remedy for kidney trouble and am only glad to speak in their favor. About five years ago I was bothered by weak kidneys and the sensations from these organs were really not attended with pain during passage. Sharp wrenches across the small of my back were common and at times greatly interfered with my work. On telling a friend of my condition, he advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I purchased a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore. I used them according to directions and they afforded me prompt relief."

PUBLIC LEADER
MAYSVILLE, KY.

Louis Frank, 79, prominent Paris merchant, died yesterday.

NAMED FOR ROOSEVELTS

WASHINGTON, October 7th.—Theodore Roosevelt, "Alice Roosevelt" and "Kermit Roosevelt" are the names given three little McDaniels, who arrived "all in a bunch" one day recently at the home of Cleon McDaniels, a Negro of this city.

Mason Circuit Court.

In the case of William Gunn for unlawfully maintaining a common nuisance, the jury after a short deliberation returned a verdict of guilty and assessed a fine $100 and cost and thirty days in jail. After he has served his thirty days he is to be retained in jail and credited with $1 per day until fine and Court costs have been paid.

In the absence of Miss Bessie Johnson yesterday Mr. R. H. Adair was appointed official Court stenographer to record the proceedings of the Gunn trial.

HON. JOHN WESLEY GAINES

Maysville had a distinguished visitor yesterday in the presence of ex-Congressman John Wesley Gaines of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Gaines, who is one of the famous State's celebrated lawyers, was a colleague of Hon. James N. Kehoe of Maysville, when he served in the House of Representatives at Washington. Congressman Gaines was in Maysville on business in a suit to Judge Cochran's Federal Court, and in looking up some land titles in the County Clerk's office he found that his grandfather, Richard Gaines, at one time resided in Maysville and both his name and that of his grandmother were appended to several deeds of record a hundred years ago in Mason county.

Mr. Gaines, although a rock-ribbed Democrat, is very much opposed to the lawless Governorship of Patterson in Tennessee and says he will support Hooper, the Republican fusion candidate, as against "Bob" Taylor, the "poetic statesman," who has fooled the public a half dozen times.

Gaines was an anti-Cannon man in the House and was the pioneer in the fight against the Tobacco Trust. He is both picturesque and popular and may visit our city again in a short time.

IN THE COUNTRY.

It seems to me I'd like to go Where the bells don't ring or the whistles blow,
Nor clocks don't strike nor gongs don't sound,
And I'd have stillness all around.

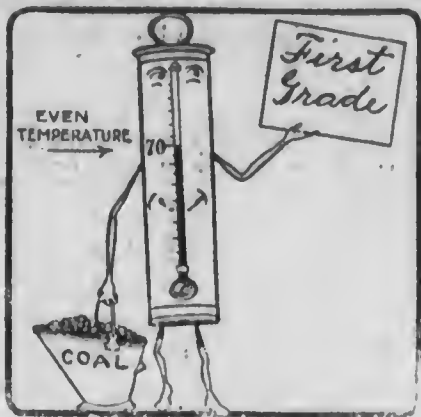

Not real stillness, but just the trees,
Low whispering, or the hum of bees,
Or brooks, faint babbling over stones
In strangely, softly tangled tones.

Or maybe a cricket or katydid,
Or the song of the birds in the hedges hid,
Or just some sound as sweet as these.
To fill a tired heart with ease.

If 'twere't for sight and sound and smell,
I'd like a city pretty well;
But when it comes to getting rest
I like the country lots the best.

Sometimes it seems to me I meet
Just quit the city's din and dust,
And get out where the sky is blue—
And, say, how does it seem to you?

—Eugene Field.

HOW LONG? HOW LONG?

It is in order to ask how much longer the City Officials are going to allow the mud and trash taken from the gutters of South Commerce street, two months ago, to remain upon the street. What is the use of cleaning out gutters if the dirt is left so that the rains can wash it back?

Work that is half done had better not be done at all.

HARD WINTER, SAYS THE SIGNS

Farmers in the Orange Mountain section of New Jersey are predicting a hard winter. They base their predictions on such signs as heavy growth of chestnuts, big muskrat houses and thick fur on animals.

THE REAL THING

The large show-window in M. Brown's harness factory and general supply depot in East Second, in its artistic arrangement is a thing of beauty that attracts the eye and holds the attention of the passer-by. The dressing of the window is the handwork of Frank Gallenstein. The adornment and display of goods is equal to any found in metropolitan cities, and stamps Mr. Gallenstein as a high class artist in the window dressing line. It is worth your while to take a look.

HOPE IT'S NOT TRUE

It was talked on the streets yesterday by truthful gentlemen, that a band of night riders on Tuesday night visited the home of Joshua Rees in the Sardis and Mayslick neighborhood and commanded that he should come out of his home, as they wished to parley with him. In his refusal to comply with the demand the marauders fired into his residence and on answering the volley with a shot from his own trusty rifle into the ranks of his unwelcome visitors, they beat a hasty retreat. If true, it is unfortunate, as it will redound to the hurt of a good cause.

A TICKLISH JOB

Railroad telegraph operators and station agents, particularly C. and O., are having a strenuous time these nights. It has only been a few days since an operator at New Richmond was murdered, the assassin standing on the outside and firing through the window.

Last night at Springdale the operator, while sitting at his key-board, came near having his head knocked off his shoulders by a rock thrown through the window by a hidden enemy, who disappeared in the darkness after failing to kill his man.

THE GREAT EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

Church unity was again the dominant theme in the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Cincinnati.

Dr. Randolph H. McKim, President of the House of Deputies, introduced the subject in welcoming Bishop Wordsworth, who was seated into Music Hall by the entire body of Bishops, who ascended the platform and remained there while the ceremonies incident to the reception of the distinguished English prelate were under way. After commenting on the fact that a predecessor of Bishop Wordsworth, the Bishop of Salisbury of eight hundred years ago, had done the first great work toward unifying the ritual of the Church, Dr.
McKim said: "You are a scholar to whom the English-speaking world is in debt for your researches in the archaeology of the Church. We in America also appreciate your work in defense of the Anglican orders against the theologians of Leo XIII. We appreciate the way in which you have faced the facts of ecclesiastical history without attempting to head them to fit theories, and have paved the way, by establishing the facts of the historic episcopate, for the union of our Church with the other Churches which draw their authority from the same historic basis, especially with the great Presbyterian Church."

Women of Cincinnati and vicinity, who are members of the Episcopal Church, have dis-

Gas Light Talks—No. 24.

Some Brick Paving.

Yesterday we gave you a few facts regarding the causes leading up to the present controversy. Today, we shall present some more.

During the time the natural gas agitation was on, in 1906, the city decided to do some brick paving, and right here the Maysville Street Railroad and Transfer Company enters into the trouble, although, as is very well known, it and the Maysville Gas Company had and have no official connection whatever.

The city sought competent engineering advice and drew up specifications calling for an ordinary brick pavement.

Now, inasmuch as its contract with the city compels it to keep the pavement between its rails in repair, the Trolley company was considerably interested in the character of the pavement to be laid.

It suggested other and better specifications which the city
finally accepted.

An ordinance was drawn up, providing for the necessary bond issue and the cost of the paving was assessed against the owners of the abutting property, in accordance with the State statute.

Then, an attempt was made by the city to compel the Trolley company to stand a proportion of the expense of paving.

The company's contract contained no such provision and, consequently and very naturally, the company refused to pay.

Then the city brought suit.

It was agreed at the time, by both parties to the action, that it would be well to have this question settled for all time.

After carrying the matter all the way up to the Court of Appeals, the company winning in the lower courts, the suit was finally decided against the city.

The Court of Appeals held that the street railroad was not an abutting property-owner and, therefore, was not liable.

Further than that, the Court denied the city's application for a rehearing.

Read Monday's Talk.
